Dear Professor Arnannit Kuyyogsuy,

The 13th International Conference on Multi-functional Materials and Applications will be held in Bengbu University, Anhui Province, P. R. China on November 21-24, 2019.

The objective of the conference is to bring together researchers, scientists, engineers and scholars in the field of Multi-functional Materials and Applications, share their experiences, ideas and research results, and discuss the practical challenges encountered and the solutions adopted.

On behalf of the organizing committee of ICMMA, we are very honored to invite you to attend the conference and make a presentation entitled "Inhibition of Citrus Green Mold by Chitosan Obtained from Shells of Mantis Shrimp (Oratosquilla nepa)".

We look forward to seeing you at ICMMA 2019 in Bengbu.

Best Regards!

Sincerely yours,

Professor Ding Ming
